Competition in the Visual Arts

Each spring, teachers of K-12 in North Dakota schools select student art work to enter in the North Dakota Juried Student Art Show, which is juried at the Taube Museum of Art in Minot.

Of the 527 entries for this year, jurors selected three pieces for the Governor's Award, to be hung in Governor Doug Burgum's office, four for the State of the Arts Award, sponsored by Senator Kevin Cramer, four for the Northern Visions Award, sponsored by Senator John Hoeven, and five for the Congressional Art Award, sponsored by Rep. Kelly Armstrong. These Selections will be hung in their offices the following year.

An additional 100 selections, including the Taube Museum of Art award winners, the People's Choice, and Spotlight award winners, become a traveling exhibit for the following year.

Jurors for 2023-2024 were Arvin K. Davis Jr., artist and educator, and Shelly Saylor, artist and owner of Nodakian Pottery Studios.
